Note:

- All application forms are to be submitted in original format, as fax/copies are not permitted.
- Application fees are non-refundable

1. "For Sale", "To Let", and "On Show" Signs & Contractors' signs

- These Estate Agent Signs may be placed at right angles, a maximum of 100mm (i. e 10cm) away from the boundary wall of the property.
- There is also a restriction on the number of "For Sale" signs with 1 sign being permitted per agency and no more than 2 agencies being permitted to advertise on a property
- Contractors' boards must be placed within or on the boundary of the property
- Only one contractor board per street-facing

2. Pointer / "On Show" Signs

- Pointer boards may be permitted provided that they are placed in the desired positions where they should not obstruct traffic nor should they be placed on the middle of road intersections, especially not on road islands, and should not be placed on major roads (freeways), from 10am on a Saturday but must be removed by 5pm on the Sunday.
- Estate Agents are reminded to ensure that the uses of such signs are not to cause any hindrance to the safety of road users by causing an obstruction or obscuring any road signage.
- The use of only 4 "On Show" signs directing members of the public to a Show house is permitted.
- No such board shall be displayed within 30m of another such board or to the nearest intersection leading to the property on show.

3. Restriction on Sizes of Sign

- As per the Bylaws, "On Show" and "For Sale" signs have a standard size of 600cmX460cm or (0,55m²) for single signs or 0,65m² for double sided boards.
- Estate Agencies who do not adhere to this norm face the consequences of having their boards removed and having fines imposed (according the legislated tariff fees).
- Contractors' boards not to exceed 2m² (W=2m , L=1m)
